HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Shape a better world and a better career future.

We believe:

- Small class sizes—The average class size is 17:1, allowing for personalized advising and a solid foundation for life—Greeley's liberal arts curriculum provides a strong foundation for life.
- Personalized advising—More than 100 advisors are available to help you navigate your academic journey.
- A solid foundation for life—Greeley's liberal arts curriculum provides a strong foundation for life.
- A global campus—Over 330 international students from more than 100 countries are part of the Greeley community.

Challenging and inspiring:

Art, literature, history, philosophy, and social sciences are all part of the Greeley experience. Our liberal arts curriculum is designed to challenge and inspire you to think critically and creatively. We offer a wide range of courses, from introductory to advanced, to help you explore your interests and develop your skills. Our faculty are experts in their fields and are committed to providing a high-quality education. We also offer a variety of extracurricular activities, including student organizations, clubs, and sports, to help you get the most out of your college experience.

HUMANITIES GRADUATES develop leadership, teamwork, critical thinking, creativity, communication, technical and adaptive skills, and are well-prepared for financial success in the marketplace.

INFLUENCE POLITICAL PROCESS
In 2018, UNC Student Senate, Bear News and the Political Science and International Affairs Club collaborated with Greeley's newspaper to host a Colorado gubernatorial debate at UNC.

BECOME A WORLD CITIZEN
In 2018, Japanese professor Sumiko Gibson led students on a 10-day trip to Japan, visiting major cities, historical sites and Greeley's sister city, Moriya.
