

PHIL 100, PHIL 126, PHIL 150 or PHIL 225 (LAA3*)	3 credits	LAC or University Electives	15 credits
LAC or University Electives	12 credits	*May include PHIL 100/126/150/225 (if not taken in fall), or courses to explore a second major or minor
A course in History & Traditions; or in Metaphysics & Epistemology or in V (major)	3 credits		3 credits
A Logic & Methods course or PHIL elective	3 credits	A Logic & Methods course or PHIL elective	3 credits
LAC, University Electives, second major or minor	9 credits

This four-year plan is a recommended schedule to meet all degree requirements in the student's major field of study. Each major and/or concentration may have additional graduation requirements.

No separate admission required.

Since the B.A. in Philosophy requires 30 credit hours, many students combine it with a second major or one or more minors

Philosophy Department
philosophy@unco.edu
 McKee 318 (970) 351-2572
 Website: <https://www.unco.edu/hss/philosophy/>

- 1 The major requires 10 courses: 1 course in Logic and Methods, 2 courses in History and Traditions, 2 courses in Value Theory, 2 courses in Metaphysics and Epistemology, the Advanced Seminar, and 2 electives (which may come from any category).
- 2 Courses in Logic and Methods include PHIL 221 (Basic Logic), PHIL 340 (Formal Logic I), and PHIL 341 (Formal Logic II).

- 3 History and Traditions courses include PHIL 231 (Ancient Greek), PHIL 232 (Medieval Western), PHIL 233 (Modern Western), and PHIL 246 (Early Chinese).
- 4 Courses in Value Theory include PHIL 250 (Medical Ethics), PHIL 310 (Topics in Ethics and Public Policy), PHIL 311